

To all and singular who shall have cause to see theses presents, I Robert VII, Duke of Florida, Lord of St. George, GSB, Governor-General in and for the Dominion of British West Florida, in the name of Her Majesty the Queen-in-Right of Florida, Elizabeth the Second, send Cavalier Greetings:

Know ye all that I have, by the several Powers and Authorities granted unto me by Her Majesty's Most Excellent Grace, appointed Our Solicitor-General, the Right Honourable Thomas Breckenridge, Esquire, as Our Ambassador and Minister from the People and Government of the Dominion of British West Florida to the People and Government of the Imperium of DeWaCo Estates.

Know ye now that Our Ambassador is designated Our one and only Spokesman and Emissary to the People and Government of the Imperium.

Know ye also that Our Ambassador has the Authority to express for Us our considered opinion in Council to the Lord Imperator and his government, this Authority not extending to matters not discussed by Us in Council.

Know ye further that our Ambassador and Emissary shall hold in the strictest confidence any communications from the People or Government of the Imperium, holding it free of subpoena saving only its intend recipient, and our own Privy Council in and for the Dominion of British West Florida.

In Witness whereof I have caused to be placed the Seal of the Office of Governor-General, and the Arms of the Dominion of British West Florida this 2nd day of November in the year of our Lord 2006, and of Her Majesty's Reign the fifty-fourth.

